

EYE OF GIZA

Ω [ATU XIII - ♁ – PATH 24 - ♀ - ☐☐] ∅

eye of giza, eye of sight i beseech thee, grant me flight thunder roaring across the plains eye of giza teach me my name the pyramids at giza, timeless wonders of the world, consciousness-focusing crystals, gateways of interdimensional star-travel. the crackle that rends the veil along the column of the middle wand of sushumna heralds an awakening electrical storm. sacred names must be adopted for sacred times.

dark companion come to life in the womb of paradise icy waters and stormy gales now transmuted into sunlight creature of the subconscious, lovecraftian faces of the deep! all is well that finds its roots in the heart of the earth, deep within the inner light of being that radiates forth nerve-like connections to each and every one of the children of ra, descendents of horus, protectorate of sekhmet. the sun and moon must be wedded, and the conjunct passed through the process of death to embrace regeneration in the now.

eye of giza

step up to the lofty peak rarefied and out of reach i see out and become the whole empyrean wheels turning the mountaintop is clear, generating its own heavenly climate due to its physical structure, its stony bones a painted echo of the spiritual form of the landscape. from a great height, a new perspective may be established. angels visit with those with open hearts who reside on the peaks.

eye of giza

